Irish Music in AMERICA

8:15 pm, Clifton Hall

SCYTHIAN

Scythian, from Washington DC (pictured)

"Scythian is fiddles, guitars, percussion, mandolin, vocals, harmonica, accordion... celtic, gypsy, rock... classically trained, boisterous, pulsating... a sound that searches beyond contemporary sources for inspiration, be it a Gershwin-esque flourish or a Scottish war chant."

—Washington Post, 9.2007
